What Will Be Your Legacy?

Giving (tzedakah) is at the core of Jewish life. For millennia, Jewish dreamers have passed on that tradition to their children through their words and deeds. They have left their legacy in the organizations and services that have nourished us, strengthened us, guided us and taught us during our lifetimes.

You learned well from their example. Through your generosity of spirit and resources, you have continued the sacred work of repairing our world. You have fed the hungry, educated the young, uplifted the lonely, protected the persecuted, and cared for the elderly. You have fought for justice and fairness, or furthered scientific understanding. Whatever you have done, you have done with passion.

So how will you turn that passion into your legacy?

It's never too early to share your dreams and your passions with future generations. Call the Jewish Federation of Greater Chattanooga today.

Contact Michael Dzik, 504-5518; mdzik@jewishchattanooga.com to start a conversation about how you can join others in the Create a Jewish Legacy effort.

There is no charge to attend this event and a dessert reception will follow. Members are encouraged to bring friends and young women to this educational experience.

Chattanooga's shlichah, Hadas Peled, presented a program on "Influential Women of Israel" along with Nashville's shlichah, Hadar Moskovitz at the Southern Region Spring Conference in Nashville. Barbara Oxenhandler was recognized as Woman of the Year in the Chattanooga Chapter. The National Convention will take place in Las Vegas July 21-4: Inspire; Imagine; Ignite. Beautiful Hadassah certificates designed for every occasion are available for contributions to JNF environmental projects such as trees or water conservation. New Hadassah Chai certificates start at $18. Millie Lander is available to assist members with certificates and Paula Israel (706-935-3156) is now in charge of a wide assortment of Hadassah cards.

Hadassah has developed a new giving plan called "Chai Society." Donors can Choose Where To Make Your Impact. A monthly donation of $15 or $30 (or an annual donation of $180 or $360) will support Hadassah's amazing projects in Israel, including those involving healthcare, medical research, youth projects, and education. Millie Lander (698-1613) can supply interested members with more information.

Current president of Chattanooga Hadassah Sandy Tabakin has just become a Founder, joining the ranks of Amelia Allen, Pris Siskin, Dana Waxler, and Fillis Frank (of beloved memory). Anyone interested in stepping up her contribution to the next level is encouraged to explore this option with Dana Waxler.

As newcomers arrive in Chattanooga, please bring them to Hadassah events so they can become part of this dedicated group. Remember: every lifecycle event deserves the gift that endures: membership in Hadassah.

The Chattanooga Chapter of Hadassah won First Place at the Southern Region Conference as a chapter. They also received a "Ruby" award for raising 10% more last year in donations, and an award for reaching the Hadassah Tower goal for last year.

Barbara Oxenhandler (above, right) is recognized as Woman of the Year for the Chattanooga chapter of Hadassah.

CHABAD OF CHATTANOOGA

Chabad
of Chattanooga
by Rabbi Shaul Perlstein

What's Chappening at Chabad?

Hebrew School

Wow!! The past few weeks at Hebrew School have been so hectic. We learned the Story of Passover, reviewed the Ma Nishtana, worked on our Haggadah placemats, and had our very own model Seder. We are looking forward to finishing an awesome year together.

Model Seder

Passover has become so meaningful for the families and children who had a chance to dig into the dough and make their very own hand-baked Matzah. They kneaded, rolled, and baked the dough into matzah in record timing. Just eighteen short minutes!

Purim in Italy?

Chabad celebrated Purim in Mexico fiesta style! Highlights: Mariachi band, margaritas, a pinata, and Mexican cuisine. One person was overheard saying, "This was amazing, I wonder where we'll celebrate Purim next year?"

Jew TC

The school year for Jew TC is coming to a close. The students enjoyed a Lunch-and-Learn before Passover. Plans are being made for an end of year grand event, especially for the students who are graduating this year.

For more information about any of the events on this page or to RSVP, please contact 423-490-1106 or rabbishaulp@gmail.com

Join us for A Day on the Farm Lag B'omer Party

May 18th!! 1:00 pm

At the Powder Springs Farm

- Zip line over the creek!
- Southern smoked BBQ!! (Yup you betchya – in our own barrel smoker!!)
- Fish the lake!
- play/hike at the creek,
- Play with the Chickens, Horses, Donkeys,
- Special music around the Bonfire to end the night!

The Lesson of Lag B'Omer

The 33rd day of the Omer Count is a special day in the Jewish calendar. It is known as Lag BaOmer, the day that marks the passing of the great Talmudic sage and mystic, Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai. This second century rabbi and kabbalist requested that the day of his passing should be marked with happiness and celebration.

One of the many Lag B'Omer traditions is for children to go on outings and play with bows and arrows. Among the many reasons for this custom is one that imparts an important life lesson.

To use a bow and arrow effectively, the shooter must first pull the bow toward himself. Once the bow is pulled as far back as possible, the arrow can be released with significant force, and hopefully meet its target quickly and accurately.

The lesson here is simple but powerful. In order to conquer and affect the world around us, we must first move inward. When we look deeply into our own soul and see the amazing potential we possess, only then can we influence others.

The Rebbe of Kotzk once said: "When I was younger I thought I would change the world. I then decided that I would work on my city, and later concentrate just on my family. But now I have decided just to try and change myself."

I do not believe the Rebbe of Kotzk meant that he would work only on himself and ignore others. After all, he led a big community and was responsible for thousands of followers. What he was saying is that the only effective way to change other people is to begin with ourselves

Improving our own character and personality is within our control. We choose to progress or stagnate, to become angry or stay calm, to give or to hold back. We cannot control other people, but we can influence them by moving inwards. Changing ourselves will change others. Taken from article on Jewishchatt.com by permission.

Torah and Tea

Women get together to sip tea, enjoy refreshments and learn/discuss beautiful and inspiring Torah insights.

April 29 @ 7:30 p.m.
22 Pisgah Ave

Torah and Tea will be held in the memory of our neighboring Chabad Rebbetzin; Rashi Minkowitz Ob'm from Alpharetta, Georgia who passed away at the young age of 37. Rashi left behind 8 young beautiful children. Rashi dedicated a big part of her life to her 'Torah and Tea' classes and we proudly join the hundreds of other Chabad centers in remembering her legacy by starting our very own "Torah and Tea" in her honor.

Women from all over enjoyed an evening of learning and inspiration about Passover.
