Chabad
of Chattanooga

Rabbi Shaul Perlstein

from the Chabad.org website

The two brothers, the famed Rabbi Elimelech of Lizensk and Rabbi Zushe of Anipoli, often wandered about together, posing as simple beggars. They would mingle with the masses, listening, teaching, speaking, helping and guiding whomever and whenever they could. Once, while they were traveling with a group of vagabonds, members of the group were accused of being thieves, resulting in the entire bunch being thrown into jail. Confident of their innocence and eventual release, the two brothers sat quietly. As the afternoon progressed, Rabbi Elimelech stood up to prepare himself to pray the afternoon service.

“What are you doing?” his brother asked.

“I’m getting ready for minchah,” replied Rabbi Elimelech.

“Dear brother,” advised Rabbi Zushe, “it is forbidden to pray in this cell, because there is a pail that serves as a toilet nearby, making the room unfit for prayer.”

Dejected, the holy Rabbi Elimelech sat down. Soon after, Rabbi Elimelech began to cry. “Why are you crying?” said Rabbi Zushe. “Is it because you are unable to pray?” Reb Elimelech answered affirmatively.

“But why weep?” continued Rabbi Zushe. “Don’t you know that the same G d who commanded you to pray, also commanded you not to pray when the room is unfit for prayer? By not praying in this room, you have achieved a connection with G d. True, it is not the connection that you had sought. Yet, if you truly want the divine connection, you would be happy that G d has afforded you the opportunity to obey His law at this time, no matter what it is.”

“You are right, my brother!” exclaimed Rabbi Elimelech, suddenly smiling. The feelings of dejection banished from his heart and mind, Rabbi Elimelech took his brother’s arm and began to dance from joy as a result of performing the mitzvah of not praying in an inappropriate place.

The guards heard the commotion and came running. Witnessing the two brothers dancing—with their long beards and flowing tzitzit—the guards asked the other prisoners what had happened.

“We have no idea!” they answered, mystified. “Those two Jews were discussing the pail in the corner, when all of a sudden they came to some happy conclusion and began to dance.”

“Is that right?” sneered the guards. “They’re happy because of the pail, are they? We’ll show them!” They promptly removed the pail from the cell. The holy brothers then prayed minchah undisturbed . . .

HADASSAH NEWS

Hadassah Happenings

by Cathryn Cohen
Chapter Reporter

Thank you Karen Hinkes for opening her home to Hadassah and hosting, "In the Kitchen with Noa." Thank you to Noa Hadad, our fabulous Israeli shlichah, for holding her cooking event on February 28 and teaching us her secrets for turning out yummy challah and rugelach and downing them with her famous Israeli coffee.

Beginning in December, Hadassah celebrated Jewish National Fund (JNF) Tu B'Shevat during Chattanooga Jewish Congregational Religious School (CJCRS) at Mizpah Congregation. Tu B'Shevat is Israel's Arbor Day. JNF Blue Boxes had been distributed to all CJCRS students in December so that they could decorate the coin boxes and donate "gelt" for trees to be planted in Israel in January and February. The Best Decorated Boxes and Most Generous Donors received special recognition. Sunday school parents and faculty members purchased many JNF Tree and Water Certificates at $18 each.

These Certificates help fund reforestation projects and the building of dams, reservoirs and water reclamation centers in Israel. Thank you again to CJCRS Co-Directors Jackie Rosenfield and Paula Israel for their creativity and enthusiasm for this very special program. JNF Certificates are a wonderful way of honoring life cycle events such as milestone birthdays or anniversaries. Tree or Water Certificates are $18 each. Contact Millie Lander for information.

Commitment to Hadassah by purchasing Life Memberships, Annual Memberships, Associate Memberships and beautiful jewelry is always appreciated. In 2016, Hadassah annual members may upgrade to Life Membership before their annual membership expires at a reduced enrollment fee of $180. For more information, contact Barbara Oxenhandler. Membership in Hadassah is the perfect gift that fits every occasion.

The newest Hadassah jewelry features a heart necklace, priced at $100, which supports the new addition to Hadassah Hospital. Three styles of bracelets at $25 each support Young Judea scholarships. The jewelry is available through Millie Lander. For all lifecycle events, think of purchasing cards through Paula Israel.

Save the Dates: Hadassah National just announced that their 2016 National Convention will be held in Atlanta July 25-28. Members can attend for one or all three days. More information will be available later this spring.

Supporting Hadassah means putting our Jewish values into action: Advocacy, Health and Well-being; Building community in Israel and the United States.
