

Parenting is HARD WORK! It doesn't come with a manual and the plethora of information circulating out in the world can be difficult to navigate. Come join us one Tuesday a month for support, information, thought provoking discussions, reflection, growth and camaraderie. It truly DOES take a village.

-Rebecca C. McDonald M.S., CPLC.

Profile

Rebecca McDonald is a passionate, innovative, and progressive Early Childhood Education Specialist with strong background in Child Development, Early Childhood Education, child health, childhood trauma, Social Emotional Learning, and positive behavior management. She has been in the Early Childhood Education industry for 30 years and has 2 adult children of her own. She has a Masters in Child Development & a Bachelors in Child Health and is a Certified Professional Life Coach. Rebecca is committed to the success of all children and their families, regardless of circumstance!